Open Air Campaigners - Central Services

MARCH 2023

The first quarter of 2023 is just about to wrap up! Last month, some of our staff were actively sharing Christ at Mardi Gras in New Orleans (not for the faint of heart). This month, as I write this letter, a team of OAC staff are leading a team of students from Liberty University to Miami for a week of Spring Break outreach.

Sue and I are thankful for our family and the various ministries God has entrusted to us. Sue continues to enjoy her daily work at our local church as administrative assist helping the pastors with necessary administration, and I find great delight in assisting our staff here in the States, as well as overseas, from the Central Services office; it has never grown old. Doors do open for me to step out onto the front lines to conduct open-air evangelism for sure, but the bulk of my time these days is like that of Aaron and Hur in Exodus 17. They had the administrative responsibility to Moses of holding up his hands, so God could work through him. I find the task of holding up many hands of our front-line staff administratively, so God can work through them unhampered. To me, this task is a source of great satisfaction and fulfillment.

AS ALWAYS, WE ARE THANKFUL FOR YOU! We thank you for praying and giving, so we can continue on. We appreciate and need your help in this way.
